Guest Instructions

Before The Party

With your invitation, you should receive these instructions and details of the character you are going to play together with your costume ideas and a pre game clue. (This clue helps to set the scene for the evening’s events).

Follow the costume suggestions but feel free to improvise wherever you prefer.

On The Night

On arrival at the party you may be given a nametag or label (please be careful with delicate fabrics). The host will then make an announcement about what has just happened and the mystery will begin.

You will be given your player clues and the events will unfold. On your first slip is some secret information, which you should not reveal unless directly challenged. Your slip will also tell you whether you are the murderer or not. If you are the murderer you may lie as much as you like. If you are not the murderer you must tell the truth.

As the evening progresses you will be able to ask and answer questions, read clues and form your opinion as to the identity of the murderer.

At the end of all the rounds the host will ask each player to make an accusation, giving reason, motive and method, of who they think is the murderer.

After everybody has guessed the host then asks the players to read their solution round slip in strict number order, starting with the lowest number first. Each player then reads his or her own section until the murderer is revealed.

This brand new flavour has taken six months to develop and after a lot of hard work it is finally ready.

So without further ado it gives me great pleasure to ask you all to pick up your Cherry Surprise chocolates and if we are all ready, 3, 2, 1, taste!

(Cries of yuk, oh no, that’s awful.)

It tastes like somebody has put chillies in the chocolate, they are horrible!

INTRODUCTION PART 2 TO BE READ BY BILLIE BONKERS

Hello again everybody, I am sorry about that. It was a real shock to taste the first chocolate and find out that it had chili in it.

Somebody has tried to ruin my taste buds and the reputation of my chocolates. I just hope they’re not poisonous.

I think we should do some of our own detective work to see if we can catch the culprit.
